

ACT

Most scores are available for online viewing within 2 ½ weeks after each national or international test date. Your scores are not reported any faster if you view them online. Score reports are normally released within 3 to 8 weeks after each test date. If you took the Writing Test, your score reports will be released only after all your scores are available, including Writing, within 5 to 8 weeks after the test date. You can have your ACT scores sent to other colleges and scholarship agencies after you test in addition to the ones you selected when you registered or tested. Requests are processed AFTER your tests have been scored and all scores for your test option—ACT (No Writing) or ACT plus Writing—are ready. A complete report that's processed within one week after your request is received. ACT delivers regular reports to colleges and agencies you've selected depending on their preferred schedule—at least every two weeks.

Fees (effective 9/1/13 through 8/31/14)

Tested after 9/1/2011	Tested before 9/1/2011
$12.00 per test date per report	$33.00 per test date per report (includes a nonrefundable $21.00 archived scores fee)

Priority reports are normally processed within two working days after ACT receives your request. Priority reports are usually delivered three to four business days later.

Fees (effective 9/1/13 through 8/31/14)

Tested after 9/1/2011	Tested before 9/1/2011
$16.00 per test date per report	$37.00 per test date per report (includes a nonrefundable $21.00 archived scores fee)

As standard follow-up, colleges and agencies that receive your priority report will also receive your complete report when ACT sends additional student reports—at least every two weeks. Colleges that receive reports only electronically might not review priority reports.

ACT can send your report only to the office the college or agency designates to receive scores, not to any other individual or office. (Admissions only)

Undergraduate students will be required to provide a score report as part of their application to formal admission to teacher education (FATE). Post Baccalaureate students, with the exception of Counselor Education, are exempt from basic skills testing.
