

Masters of Education Advising Sheet - Department of Professional and Secondary Education
(Total: 36 credit hours)

1) Phase I-Pre-candidacy: Required courses (9 credit hours)

Courses	Credits
EDF 591 – Introduction to Critical Action Research (Fall)	3
EDF 511 – Foundations of Transformative Education (Fall)	3
EDP 570 – Cognition and Transformation (Spring)	3

2) Phase II: Electives and Candidacy Requirements

a) Electives (minimum of 12 credit hours)

Electives may be chosen from the courses listed below, or from any graduate-level course across the university that will support the student's area of inquiry. They also may be a combination of both, but requires graduate advisor approval.

Elective courses:

EDF 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 509, 515, 516, 520, 570, 580, 581, 589, 590; EDP 531; EDS 505, 524, 599; EDT 500, 501, 502, 503, 511; EDU 501, 502

Courses	Credits
	3
	3
	3
	3

b) Candidacy requirements (15 credit hours):

- i) These courses will be taken after the student has advanced to candidacy and developed an approved sequence of courses with their graduate advisor.

Courses	Credits
EDF 588: Critical Pedagogy & the Politics of Education	3
EDT 511: Social & Cultural Implications of Educational Technology	3
EDS 502: Curriculum Development in Diverse Society	3
EDF 593: Evaluation of Educational and Social Change	3
EDF 595: Critical Action Research Thesis	3	