

Interdisciplinary Study in the Mexican Caribbean This Summer!
WCU in Isla Mujeres, Mexico

Courses Offered EDA 103 (Foundation of Special Education) – time online & in Mexico SPA 102 (Introductory Spanish II) & SPA 201 (Intermediate Spanish I)

Projected Dates: Summer I

Time in Mexico: Depart for Mexico à May 28-30 / Depart for Home: June 20

What is Mujeres? A small Caribbean island just 15 minutes by ferry from Cancun, Mexico. It's a small, friendly, walkable and ecological unique area.

Why should I study abroad there? It's the perfect way to jump start your professional college career in a beautiful friend safe environment. You'll meet wonderful local people and volunteer in the community, while learning the basics of Spanish.

Service Learn on Isla Mujeres

The Little Yellow School House
Isla Animals
Clinica Veterina
Ria de Chipie and Isla Animals
Amor a la Niñez
Amigos de Isla Contoy
Patrulla Verde

Attractions on the Island

Garafón Natural Reef Park
Punta Sur
Dolphin Discovery
Ixchel Goddess Temple El Meco
Haciendo Mundaca
Contoy National Park
Casa de la Cultura
El Mercado

Estimated Cost: $3,435

Includes: Tuition, Airfare, Lodging, Most Meals & Excursions!

Your service learning hours at the Little Yellow School House, a school for children with disabilities, count toward Formal Admission to Teacher Education!

*For more information, please contact
Dr. Alice Speh (aspeh@wcupa.edu) or
Dr. Vicki McGinly (vmcginley@wcupa.edu)
Check out our simply but evolving website & blog at www.wcuislamujeres2015.wordpress.com*