NTD 200. Section 94. Nutrition and Culture. 3 credits.

Students will increase awareness of the connection between health outcomes, diet and nutrition, and socio-cultural influences. Course studies will lay a foundation for understanding why people eat the foods that they do. A bio-cultural framework is applied to examine how individual dietary habits, choices, and nutritional health outcomes are influenced by social structure, historic patterns and events, and cultural beliefs and ideology. Prerequisites: None.

Schedule: TuTh 4:00-5:15

Format: In Person

Location: This course is offered in-person at WCU's Philadelphia Center, located at 701 Market Street in the Lits Building between 7th and 8th streets in Center City. WCU's Academic and Classroom Suite is located on the concourse/lower level of the building.
