

Policy on Pre-Course Assignments

Date Proposed: March 27, 2014
Date Recommended by CAPC: March 27, 2014
Date Approved by Provost: April 3, 2014

Policy regulating pre-course assignments

Syllabi may not be structured so as to require graded assignments that are due on or before the day the course officially begins. This policy is not intended to preclude or discourage students from previewing course materials when they become available on D2L, e.g., to review the syllabus, explore the website, etc.
