

How We Work With New Students

The Center for Women and Gender Equity (CWGE) promotes a campus culture and climate that supports principles of social justice, equity, inclusion, and community. We advocate for a campus community that values the safety, equality, and intellectual advancement of women and historically marginalized groups. CWGE provides education, resources, and advocacy primarily on gender-related issues. We facilitate, sustain, and advance dialogue about how gender intersects with race, ethnicity, class, sexual identity, ability, age, and nationality.

Fast Facts

- 1) We host an annual leadership conference. Our goal is to educate, empower, and inspire those who identify as women to become effective leaders and advocate for themselves and others.
- 2) We create opportunities for women of color to build community. We host the Women of Color celebration and Women of Color track at the leadership conference.
- 3) We offer employment opportunities for students, including Federal Work Study.

Key Takeaways

We are committed to advancing social justice on campus. Students who are interested in learning more about what we do or seeking support from our office can visit us in the Lawrence Center.
