Morning Sessions

Adulting: How to Support Your Student

10:10–10:40 AM

Emilie K. Asplundh Concert Hall

Offered by the Office of Student Conduct and WCU's Title IX Coordinator, this session will help you understand your student's transition as they adjust to their new, independent lifestyle at college. The session includes information about campus resources and University policies that support new students' success.

Residence Life Sessions

10:50–11:35 AM

Emilie K. Asplundh Concert Hall

During this session you will hear about the policies that govern our residential communities, and we'll share what to bring and what not to bring to campus in an informative and entertaining way. You will also receive information to help make your move-in experience spectacular!

Commuter Life Session

10:50–11:35 AM

Sykes Student Union 10A

During this session we will discuss the important facts of being a commuter student at WCU--everything from parking and shuttle buses to bike shares and campus jobs. Learn about the resources and programs that will best fit your commuter student and how they can manage their commute to and from campus as well as their in-class and out-of-class experiences.

Pick-a-Sessions

All sessions held from 1:40–2:20 PM and 2:35–3:15 PM unless otherwise noted

Campus Dining Services

University Hall Multipurpose Room

WCU's outstanding dining services team will provide an overview of all the services WCU dining offers. You will receive information about the different meal plans, how to use them, and where they are accepted. Find out about job opportunities with dining services, our signature gift and birthday cake program, and other great information about WCU's world-class dining program.

Campus Recreation, Fraternity & Sorority Life, Student Leadership & Involvement

2:35-3:15 PM ONLY

Brandywine Hall 31

WCU encourages all students to get involved! With close to 300 clubs, diverse leadership programs and fraternities and sororities, students are bound to find their niche. Our outstanding recreation and fitness activities also allow students to participate in nationally ranked club sports, outdoor adventure programs, intramural sports, group fitness, open recreation, and recreational swim so new students can easily make connections with others who appreciate a healthy, active lifestyle. Find out how involvement can help new students gain experience and confidence while also developing the skills to be successful in today's competitive job market!

Campus Store & Ram e-Card Services

Brandywine Hall 04

The SSI Campus Store staff will provide you with a complete overview of their services, information about online textbook reservations, and how to help students make educated decisions when buying textbooks. The Ram e-Card is your student's access to EVERYTHING on campus; from food to fun, rec center to residence hall. Get to know this essential campus resource!

Career Development

Brandywine Hall Theatre

The Career Development Center helps students explore possibilities, identify majors and career options, and develop the necessary skills to secure a rewarding position. Come learn about the various programs, resources, employment recruiting, and networking opportunities Career Development offers to give WCU graduates a competitive edge in today's job market.

Education Abroad Opportunities at WCU

Allegheny Hall Theatre

Learn about opportunities for WCU students to study, volunteer, intern, and teach internationally during their WCU career. The Center for International Programs will provide an overview of education abroad and how these programs work for WCU students.

Financial Aid & the Bursar's Office

Brandywine Hall 33

Making the financial commitment to a college education can be daunting and overwhelming. Representatives from Financial Aid and the Bursar's Office will provide you with information and guidance about WCU's financial aid and billing processes.

Student Health Services & Wellness Promotion

Commonwealth Hall

Representatives from Student Health Services and Wellness Promotion will provide you with information about health and wellness services on campus.

All sessions held from 1:40–2:20 PM and 2:35–3:15 PM unless otherwise noted

Technology Resources for Student Success

Allegheny Hall Multipurpose Room

Representatives from the Information Services & Technology Division will cover the vast technical resources available to WCU students including software applications, equipment lending, and support services.

University Student Housing (Affiliated Housing)

Commonwealth Hall Multipurpose Room

Your student has secured on-campus housing in a suite-style USH community...now what? USH staff will provide you with the information you need for the next few months, including the billing process, how to use financial aid toward affiliated housing, what to expect during Drop & Go and move-in day, and much more!

1:40-2:20 PM ONLY

Welcoming First Generation Families

Brandywine Hall 31

Is your student the first person in the family to attend college? Each year WCU welcomes hundreds of first generation students to our campus. Learn about the programs we offer to help them succeed and how you can participate.
