

The WCU English Department's African/African American Literature Minor wants to take you to . . .

THE MOUNTAINTOP

An award-winning play by Katori Hall

The African/African American Literature Minor is offering free tickets & transportation to the SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2:00 p.m.

performance of The Mountaintop at the People's Light Theater in Malvern, PA

To reserve your ticket and a seat in our van shuttle, please email Dr. Andrew Sargent (asargent@wcupa.edu). Reservations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis.

All students are welcome!

The Mountaintop imagines Martin Luther King Jr. on the last night of his life: April 3, 1968. Alone in Room 306 of the Lorraine Motel in Memphis, King is visited by a mysterious maid who forces him to question his life and legacy. Praised as "daring, rousing, and provocative," Hall's play offers a complex vision of MLK that speaks powerfully to our own era.

Visit the African/African American Literature Minor at <https://www.wcupa.edu/arts-humanities/english/africanLit.aspx>