

The Ethnic Studies Institute Presents

Venerable Xianqi

Abbot of Yongchun Puji Monastery, Fujian Province, China

Venerable Xianqi is the Abbot of Yongchun Puji Monastery in Fujian Province, China and the Longquan Great Compassion Monastery in Utrecht, Netherlands. He is a dedicated practitioner of Buddhism and traditional Chinese culture.

Tuesday, April 18

5:30 – 6:30 pm

Panel: “Applications of Buddhist Ethics to Contemporary Issues”

with Dr. Donald McCown, Health and Dr. Joshua Mason, Philosophy

Commencing with:

Reception: 4:00 – 5:00 pm

Meditation: 5:00 – 5:30 pm

Ehinger Office Annex

(700 S. Church St.)

Thursday, April 20

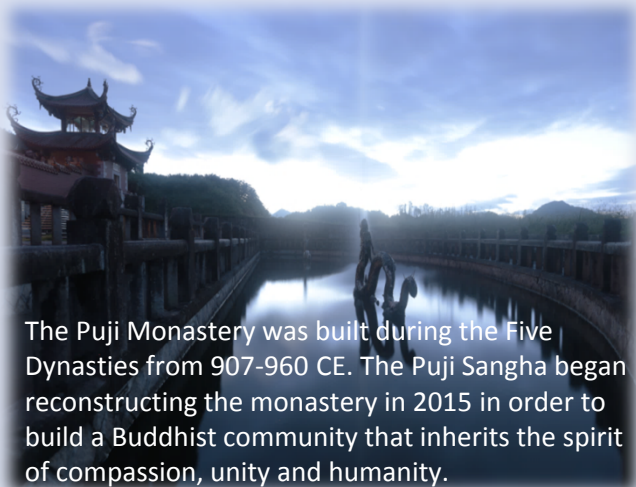

3:30 – 4:30 pm

Public Lecture:

“The Practice of Puji Monastery”

Sykes Ballroom B

Reception: 4:30 – 5:30 pm

The Puji Monastery was built during the Five Dynasties from 907-960 CE. The Puji Sangha began reconstructing the monastery in 2015 in order to build a Buddhist community that inherits the spirit of compassion, unity and humanity.

Co-sponsors: Center for Contemplative Studies, Department of Philosophy

<http://www.wcupa.edu/EthnicStudies>