All students entering the University fall 2002 and later (native or transfer) must take three credits of writing emphasis at the 300-400 level. WRT 120, 200, 204, 205, 206, 208, or 220 do not count as writing emphasis courses. Each writing emphasis course may simultaneously fulfill another degree requirement. Note: Writing emphasis courses may not be transferred to WCU.

NOTES on GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS:

(1) Placed into ENG Q20? Might take Writing Challenge Exam during summer before entering. If placed into, and pass, WRT 200, no need for WRT 120 (but still needs 120 credits for graduation) / Enrolled in ENG Q20 > needs C- or better to enroll in WRT 120. ENG Q20 counts for GPA but not towards 120 total credits. / WRT 120 = if failed 3 times = dismissed from univ.

(2) Math SAT < 430 => MAT Q01 / Math SAT 440 to 470 or passed MAT Q01 with C- or more > MAT Q00 / Math SAT > 480 may enroll in any GenEd Math course. / If planning on taking MAT 161, Calculus I: Math SAT 480-580 > placed into MAT 110 precalculus; > 590 = MAT 161. NOTE: Credits earned in MAT Q00/Q01 = into GPA not for 120 total credits.

(♦) Students who are unable to engage in a full immersion experience abroad can meet the requirement in one of the following ways, to be recommended by the advisor in consultation with the student and approved by the chairperson:

- 1) achievement of a score of AL (advanced low) on the ACTFL oral proficiency exam (OPI), or
- 2) participation in real-time online exchanges with students and schools where the target language is spoken, for example, Russia or Germany, amounting to at least 45 contact hours, or
- 3) take a designated elective intensive course (or courses) in the target language designed to improve proficiency.

The course work in options #1 and #2 will meet the program’s learning outcomes approved by CAPC in December 2013. The deadline for applying for the immersion exception is a year prior to graduation or before completing 90 credits.

MINOR CONCENTRATION:
Minor in another Language or an Interdisciplinary Area

18 credits

We encourage language majors to pursue a minor, either in another language or in one of the other concentration areas in our department. For language majors choosing to minor in a second language, the 18 credits must be taught in the language in which the student is seeking a minor. Culture cluster courses (taught in English) do not count. Also, for any minor, the WCU policy is that a minimum of 50% of the credits for the minor must be completed at WCU (i.e., transferred courses, including those obtained through CLEP, may be counted towards a minor for up to 50% of the credits to be applicable to that minor).

Minors are available in Arabic, French, German, Italian, Latin, Latin American and Latino/a Studies, Linguistics, Russian and Russian Studies.

Specifically for language minors (Arabic, French, German, Italian, Latin, Russian and Spanish), the following points are to be observed:

1. The minor concentration begins with the language sequence of 101-102 (or 103), 201-202 (203 or 205), unless the student tests at a higher level through the placement exam.
2. A minimum grade of B is required in the 101-102 sequence in order to pursue a minor. A minimum grade of C is required in courses beyond the 102 level.
3. Beyond the 202 sequence, courses at the 300 or 400 levels in the same language must be taken, under advisement.

Courses: ____101 ____102 ____201 ____202 ____301 ____302 or other 300 or 400 level courses for a total of the required 18 semester credit hours.

For course sequence information for interdisciplinary minors (Latin American and Latino/a Studies, Linguistics, and Russian Studies), refer to their respective advising sheets and advisors.
