[Mission]

The mission of TESOL programs at West Chester University is to educate and prepare candidates so that they...

- a) are knowledgeable in the factors and issues which inform second language education;
- b) are highly capable instructors of English as a Second Language for a variety of learners in a variety of contexts, especially public schools PK-12; and
- c) have the skills necessary to function as effective language and literacy educators and community leaders among diverse populations both within the U.S. and abroad.

[Program Descriptions]

The Master of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (MA TESOL) is an interdisciplinary graduate program administered by the department of Languages and Cultures (L&C). The MA is primarily designed for those preparing to teach English to learners whose first/home language is not English, and for pre-certified teachers who wish to develop their field-related expertise in the area of second language teaching, curriculum design, assessment, language program development, and educational leadership and advocacy.

The Certificate in Teaching English as a Second Language (TESL Certificate) provides an introduction into teaching English to speakers of other languages. The Certificate is primarily designed to qualify pre-certified teachers to teach ESL in Pennsylvania public schools, in cases where a primary teaching certification is already in place at the time of application to the program and is approved by Pennsylvania Department of Education. The course sequence may also be geared to prepare graduates for EFL or ESL teaching outside of PK-12 public school contexts in the U.S. and abroad.

The Certificate in TESL applicants planning to teach ESL in PA public schools (that is, applying for PDE ESL Program Specialist (PDEEPS) Certificate) should have previously student taught and earned formal (stand-alone) certification from the PDE in another area before entering this program. Applicants to PDEEPS are required to first earn Instructional I certification in an alternate subject area (e.g., K-12 Spanish or French, Secondary English, Social Studies) recognized by the PDE in order to apply for the necessary qualification for teaching ESL in the public schools in Pennsylvania.

[Course Requirements]

The faculty of the Department of Languages & Cultures at West Chester University collaborate to ensure that MA TESOL and TESL Certificate (ESL Program Specialist Certificate, PDEEPS) candidates meet the PDE guidelines, as well as the requirements set forth in the Professional Education Unit's CAEP Conceptual Framework (visit <https://www.tesol.org/advance-the-field/standards>).

The Certificate in TESL/ESL Program Specialist (PDEEPS) Certificate (for teaching ESL in PA public schools):

TESL certificate candidates are required to take 18 credit hours of graduate-level coursework to develop their knowledge bases in the areas of second language (L2) teaching, assessment, ESL curriculum development, sociolinguistics and the structure of English. The program includes 60 hours of supervised field experiences, in which candidates are observed, mentored, and critiqued by university faculty as they teach on-site and interact in area ESL classrooms.

There are six (6) courses in the TESL Certificate program:

- LIN 501 (Introduction to Linguistics)
- LAN 504 (Techniques of Teaching English as a Second Language)
- LIN 540 (Sociolinguistics)
- LAN 569 (Teaching English Language Learners PK-12)
- LAN 575 (Structure of Modern English)
- LAN 576 (Curriculum and Materials for TESOL)

The TESL Certificate can be completed in three formats: face-to-face, online, and online/face-to-face combination.

MA in TESOL

MA TESOL candidates take 24 core credits with 12 hours of elective credits, under advisement, which enables them to develop a field-related specialization aligned with their professional goals (e.g., adult ESL, EFL, subsequent doctoral work, advocacy, etc.). MA candidates may earn the TESL Certificate en route to their degree. To enroll in the Cert program, admitted MA students need to apply via MyWCU (see Graduate Student: Add Certificate Request) and, if planning to teach in PA public schools, also fill out the ESL APS form.

MA TESOL candidates also submit a culminating assessment portfolio and sit for a required 3-hour comprehensive examination upon completion of the required coursework. Details about the portfolio and comprehensive examination are made available to MA TESOL candidates one semester before the graduating semester.

Applicants without a background in linguistics will be required to take LIN 501 (Introduction to Linguistics) as a program prerequisite in addition to the following eight (8) courses in order to complete requirements of the MA degree:

- LAN 500 (Methods and Materials of Research in Second Language Education)
- LAN 504 (Techniques of Teaching English as a Second Language)
- LIN 540 (Sociolinguistics)
- LAN 575 (Structure of Modern English)
- LAN 576 (Curriculum and Materials for TESOL)
- LAN 584 (Teaching Reading and Writing to ESL Students)
- LAN 583 (Second Language Acquisition)
- LAN 587 (ESL Practicum)

[Admissions]

In addition to meeting the general requirements for admission to a graduate program at West Chester, applicants must document background in the following areas:

1. Applicants must have a baccalaureate degree from a college or university accredited in the United States or its equivalent from a school in another country. A minimum 2.80/4.0 undergraduate GPA is required.
2. Prior "Introduction to Linguistics" coursework (subject to approval by a TESOL program adviser). Applicants who do not meet this criterion will be offered provisional admission to the program and be required to take LIN 501 during the fall semester in order to gain full admission status;
3. Proficiency in English. Applicants whose native language is not English must submit an official report from one of the following organizations:
 - TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) - applicants must score a minimum of 92 for the internet-based exam (237 for the computer-based exam, 580 for the paper-based exam); or
 - IELTS (International English Language Testing Service) - applicants must receive an overall IELTS score at band 6.5 or above, and minimum scores of 6.5 for speaking, listening, reading and writing are preferred.
 - In addition, for students in the ESL Program Specialist Certificate Program (PDEEPS), applicants whose native language is not English must demonstrate proficiency in English via the American Council for the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) test called the "English Language Oral Proficiency Interview" (OPI). Information about the ACTFL test, including test dates and locations in international countries, can be obtained here.
4. GRE scores are not required for application or admission to TESOL Programs at WCU.
5. For TESL CERT only - Teaching Certification (if planning to teach ESL in PA public schools)

[TESOL Program Outcomes and PDE Standards]

TESOL Program outcomes are based on Standards developed by the PA Department of Education (PDE) and include the following knowledge bases and skills:

I. Language

Candidates will demonstrate the ability to:

- A. Recognize language as an integrative system made up of component parts (phonology, morphology, syntax, pragmatics and semantics) and apply this knowledge to identify aspects of English that are difficult for ELLs.
- B. Support ELLs in communicating effectively for social and academic purposes by enhancing oral/aural skills, i.e., recognizing and using syntactic structures, the English sound system, and other communication skills.
- C. Support ELLs in understanding and using appropriate register variation and language use within different contexts and for different audiences, including formal, informal, social, and academic.
- D. Develop a variety of instructional techniques to assist ELLs in developing and using vocabulary (idioms, cognates, and collocations) and L2 literacy appropriately in written and spoken language, including contextualized practice with focused feedback.
- E. Apply knowledge of the principles of first and second language acquisition, and of the differences between first and second language acquisition, to the design of instruction for ELLs.
- F. Apply strategies that recognize the role of students' L1s as a resource for language and literacy development and for communicating with invested participants (students, families, volunteer support, and bilingual aides).

II. Culture

Candidates will demonstrate the ability to:

- A. Demonstrate knowledge of the processes of negotiating one's cultural identity.

Updated: November 2021

- B. Differentiate among the varied processes of cultural transitions, including acculturation, assimilation, biculturalism and resistance.
- C. Identify negative effects of prejudice, stereotyping and ethnocentrism on language learners' successful learning in schools and promote pro-social classroom learning environment.
- D. Recognize cultural bias in curriculum and materials and use a range of resources to deliver instruction.
- E. Demonstrate effective intercultural communication skills to appreciate diverse cultures.
- F. Develop effective techniques for communication between home and school by recognizing and supporting the preferred mode of communication of the parent/guardian (written, oral, L1, L2, etc.) and utilizing interpretation and translation resources appropriately.
- G. Demonstrate understanding of the interdependence of language and culture to facilitate students' transition between the home culture/language and U.S. school culture/language.
- H. Integrate diverse ways of learning and multiple cultural perspectives, including building on ELLs' strengths, into the planning/adapting of curriculum and instructional methods.

III. Observing, Planning, Implementing, and Managing Instruction

Candidates will demonstrate the ability to:

- A. Design standards-aligned instruction in English utilizing the Pennsylvania Academic Standards, the English Language Proficiency Standards, and Can-Do descriptors in relation to the continuum of proficiency levels.
- B. Plan effective lessons in all domains (Reading, Writing, Speaking, and Listening) using a variety of materials, texts, activities, strategies and assessments appropriately based on consideration of learners' differing English language proficiency, L1 literacy and prior knowledge, age and developmental stages, grade levels, learning styles and socio-cultural needs.
- C. Plan ESL instruction and assessment specific to the reading and writing needs of students with limited formal schooling (LFS) or interrupted formal education (SIFE).
- D. Recognize, plan and implement key elements of ESL lesson design, which include:
 - 1. Content and language objectives;
 - 2. Scaffolding, supports;
 - 3. Activating and building on prior knowledge;
 - 4. Formative and authentic assessments; and
 - 5. Academic and social interaction at the English Language Proficiency Level of the student, specifically in the domains of listening, speaking, reading and writing.
- E. Differentiate instruction based on formative assessment of student progress, reteaching as necessary for students who need additional time and alternative approaches to meet learning outcomes.
- F. Develop and implement communicative activities in K-12 classrooms that promote authentic interactions for social and academic purposes and that integrate all language skills, i.e., reading, writing, speaking, and listening.
- G. Plan and provide evidence-based reading and writing instruction that includes various cueing systems (i.e. graphic, syntactic, and semantic cues) appropriate for ELLs.
- H. Select, analyze and adapt a variety of authentic sources and tools to enhance oracy and literacy development for ELLs, including but not limited to:
 - 1. Various popular texts, including fiction, non-fiction, comic-book style, etc.;
 - 2. Visual and/or original source materials;
 - 3. L1 materials;
 - 4. Music;
 - 5. Media and multi-media, including technological resources and electronic communication.
- I. Explain and model explicit comprehension and learning strategies that assist students with learning tasks in all subject areas.
- J. Collaborate with and provide guidance to content teachers of ELLs related to using English language proficiency standards (ELPS), appropriate supports, and adaptations which provide students access to content instruction, tasks and assessments at their English language proficiency level.

IV. Assessment

Candidates will demonstrate the ability to:

- A. Use multiple and appropriate formative and summative assessment measures for a variety of purposes, including classroom and student self-assessment and technology-based assessment (e.g., audio, video, computer) at various grade levels.
- B. Apply appropriate testing practices for English language learners including:
 - 1. Determination of the validity and reliability of tests to make assessment related decisions for ELLs;
 - 2. Knowledge and application of alternate and multiple assessment measures to ascertain what ELLs know and can do;

3. Appropriate interpretation and use of data to support ELLs;
4. Assessment of ELLs' test-taking challenges and creation of strategies and scaffolding techniques to address these challenges.
- C. Recognize, apply and share state-allowed testing accommodations for ELLs at varying proficiency levels.
- D. Identify and use multiple assessment resources and measures (including research, native language evaluation, Pennsylvania English Language Proficiency Standards, PA Academic Achievement Standards, and WIDA ACCESS for ELLs performance rubrics, among others) to make informed decisions concerning an ELL's progression through a language instruction program (identification, placement, progress, achievement, exit, and monitoring) observing all applicable national and state requirements.
- E. Implement a variety of assessment tools as part of classroom instruction (observation checklists, reading logs, video spreadsheet software, self- and peer-assessment, among others), planning for classroom practice of each technique, to record progress towards ELLs' English language proficiency and academic achievement.
- F. Inform parents/families, using their preferred mode(s) of communication, of federal and state-mandated testing, and the implications of such testing, for ELLs in a language instructional program.
- G. Identify accountability measures and assessment targets in order to analyze real-time ELL data in order to make programmatic and instructional adjustments.
- H. As part of an instructional planning team, analyze data from various ELL groups (disaggregated, where appropriate, by language proficiency level, grade level, instructional site, etc.) to evaluate the effectiveness of an ESL program or language teaching methodology.
- I. Identify and use a variety of resources and research, including native-language assessment and accommodated assessments, to inform decisions about language differences, giftedness, learning disabilities, or other qualities of ELLs which would entitle them to participation in school programs.
- J. Understand and share multiple measures of assessment data, collected over time, to document ELL growth and progress before considering a referral to a special education or other remedial program.
- K. Evaluate and share data, including strengths and weaknesses of each model, with parents/family and other members of a team making informed decisions on referral of an ELL for special education or gifted services.

V. Professionalism

Candidates will demonstrate the ability to:

- A. Use research in the field of ESL to articulate a personal educational philosophy for instructing ELLs.
- B. Conduct focused action research in the classroom following applicable procedures for protection of human research participants.
- C. Create a personal professional development plan based on interests and reflection, taking advantage of opportunities to support those goals in professional associations and other academic organizations.
- D. Collaborate with general and specialist school staff (e.g., multidisciplinary faculty teams) for the purpose of establishing instructional programs appropriate for ELLs at a variety of English proficiency levels.
- E. Recognize the need to advocate for ELLs and their families including full access to school resources; inform colleagues in instructional teams.
- F. Develop classroom activities that could involve families and provide ELLs and their families with information, support, and assistance (e.g., advocate for the students and their families, help families participate in their school/community through the use of bilingual paraprofessionals or interpreters, or engage with community members and policymakers with respect to issues affecting ELLs).
- G. Model the use of culturally and linguistically responsive techniques and dispositions, so as to support the learning of other school professionals working with ELLs.

[Diverse Field Experiences]

Supervised field experiences are an important component of both MA TESOL and TESL Cert (ESL Program Specialist) Programs. Fieldwork is a formal requirement of LAN569 (methods), LAN 504 (techniques), LAN 576 (curriculum and materials) and LAN 587 (practicum). In each of these courses, candidates' knowledge, skills, and dispositions are assessed through fieldwork. Field placements vary according to current (and future) teaching positions of candidates. PK-12 ESL sites include rural, suburban, and urban districts stretching from Oxford Area School District in southern Chester County to Norristown, and the School District of Philadelphia to the east. Governmental (e.g., Delaware Valley Literacy Council), non-profit/volunteer (e.g., Comunidad Hispana), university (e.g., Drexel), and community college ESL programs in the region may also be used for students whose career goals do not involve PK-12 instruction. Candidates are required to implement educational principles and theories into practice during fieldwork. Upon completing on-site assignments, candidates are subsequently required to engage in reflection via discussions, presentations, and written assignments.

[Clearances]

Clearances are not needed if you are completing your field hours in adult education. For field experiences in Pk-12 contexts, students must obtain current clearances before the start of semester. Students should note that this is a lengthy process (e.g., It can take up to two weeks to obtain the Child Abuse clearance) and plan in advance. Students without clearances will first receive e-mail correspondence from the Student Services office (see sample e-mail in Appendix) and at the start of the semester will be dropped from field courses. Detailed instructions for obtaining clearances can be accessed at <https://www.wcupa.edu/education-socialwork/clearances.aspx>

As soon as students obtain their clearances, they should upload them through a secure link within MyWCU. Please do not email or fax clearances. At that time, students will be able to contact school districts and request field experience in classrooms with English Learners.

If students are current practicing teachers and plan on completing fieldwork in the same school district, they may be able to use the clearances on file with their employment. Employed school professionals can be approved for one (1) semester by completing the Verification of Employment form with the candidate's Human Resources Department. The clearances and TB test on file with the school or school district of employment must be submitted along with the completed form.

Specific questions regarding clearances can be directed to The Office of Candidate Services at 610-436-2999 or CANDIDATESERVICES@wcupa.edu

[Graduation]

Candidates must notify the program director regarding their completion plan no later than the beginning of the final semester.

Both MA and TESL Certificate candidates apply for graduation (MA degree and TESL Certification, respectively) in MyWCU. Simply log on to your MyWCU account and click the link "Apply for Graduation."

Candidates pursuing Program Specialist Certificate (PDEESL) (that is, TESL Certificate in order to teach in PA public schools) will need to apply for Certificate in PDE TIMS (select "Program Specialist" option). Please find information regarding certification here: <https://www.wcupa.edu/education-socialWork/certificationInfo.aspx>

[Advising]

Students are advised through consultation with the program director and faculty advisors via several advisement tools (e.g., Advising sheets (see pages 8 and 9), Program Fact Sheet, WCU Graduate Catalog). Candidates should meet with a faculty advisor in order to select courses for the following term and to ensure that professional goals are aligned with course choices and field experiences. Program advising sheets and additional information are attached below for student and faculty reference.

Course Scheduling [general information]

- It is strongly advised to register for courses as soon as the scheduling opens (i.e., October/November for spring courses; February/March for fall courses).
- It is advised (although not required) to take the Tier 1, Tier 2, and Tier 3 course in order.
- It is advised (although not required) to spread out your field courses throughout different semesters for manageable workload per semester.
- Some TESOL electives are generally offered during Summer Sessions. LAN 569 is offered during Summer Session II.
- You must inform the program director of your completion plan at your earliest convenience (no later than the beginning of your final semester)
- For questions, please contact your adviser or the TESOL Programs Director.

[Sample E-mail related to missing Clearances]

[Student Name],

You recently enrolled in [Name of Course with Field Component], field course that requires background clearances to be in a field placement with children. The dates of issue for the background clearances must be on or after [date].

- Clearances are not needed if you are working with adult education.
- If you are an Employed School Professional and completing your field work at your school or school district of employment, you may be able to use your clearances on file with your employment with proof of employment.

All others (not with Adult Education and not an Employed School Professional)

Background clearances include:

- the PA State Criminal Record Check (online application).
- PA Child Abuse Clearance (online application that can take up to 2 weeks to return the clearance).
- FBI IdentoGO fingerprinting that requires fingerprinting in the State of PA (please only submit your IdentoGO receipt or email from IdentoGO).

Also required:

- a Tuberculosis (TB) test under one year old is required IF not already submitted.

It is important that you schedule your IdentoGo appointment for fingerprinting now. Directions are found at the link, 1st bullet.

Please review the step-by-step instructions for applying for clearances and directions for uploading clearances in MyWCU at this LINK, 1st, 2nd, & 3rd bullets. MAC Users do not use Safari, choose Firefox instead, clear your browser's history, and restart your computer before
