

Religious Studies Program: MINOR Guidance Sheet
(Fall 2009 –new incoming & new transfer students)

*****

A minor provides transcript recognition of proficiency in a supplementary field. It can serve to strengthen a major or to broaden one’s interests. A minor is evidence of a planned program of electives. Requirements for a minor in Religious Studies are as follows:

MINOR IN RELIGIOUS STUDIES

PHI102	Intro to Religious Studies	3	_____
PHI206	Religions of the West	3	_____
Either:
PHI204	Philosophies & Religions of India OR	3	_____
PHI205	Philosophies & Religions of the Far East

Electives : PHI or related (under advisement)
At least two courses must be at the 300 level or above

Suggested courses:

- PHI125           Theology and Science
- PHI130           Religion in the U.S.
- PHI 204 or 205   (if not taken above)
- PHI207           Philosophies of Non-Violence
- PHI210           Introduction to Islam
- PHI271           Medieval Philosophy
- PHI310           New Religious Movements
- PHI349           Ideas of the Bible
- PHI390           Women and Religion
- PHI414           Philosophy of Religion
- SOC344           Sociology of Religion
- ANT344           Magic, Religion & Witchcraft

At least two	_____	3	_____
at the 300 level	_____	3	_____
or above	_____	3	_____

Total Credits:       18