

The Islamophobia in Perspectives Speaker Series Presents:

Islamophobia: A Perspective from an American Jewish Activist in the Movement for Justice

This presentation comes from the perspective of a Jewish American partner in the movement to challenge Islamophobia. Dr. Nevel discusses the different forms and manifestations of Islamophobia, and how to be an accountable, principled partner in the broader movement to challenge Islamophobia and racism.

September 13, 2017

2:00p-3:15p

115 Sykes

Free snacks provided!

Dr. Donna Nevel is a community psychologist and educator, a coordinator of PARCEO, a participatory research center. She is an organizer for justice in Palestine/Israel; against Islamophobia and anti-Arab racism; and for justice in public education. She is a founding member of Facing the Nakba Project, Jews Say No!, and Network Against Islamophobia, and was a co-founder of Jews for Racial and Economic Justice in NYC. She has also taught PAR to graduate students at NYU Steinhardt.

SPONSORS

THE OFFICE OF
SOCIAL EQUITY

ETHNIC STUDIES INSTITUTE
West Chester University

Center for Women & Gender
Equity

LAWRENCE A. DOWDY
MULTICULTURAL CENTER

DEPARTMENTS:

PHILOSOPHY

WOMEN'S & GENDER STUDIES

ENGLISH

