

The Dr. Edwin Cottrell Entrepreneurial Center

The Entrepreneurship Fellows Program

Coaching, mentoring, and networking for aspiring entrepreneurs

The WCU Entrepreneurs Fellows Program assists aspiring entrepreneurs to successfully start a new venture through coaching, mentoring, networking, and entrepreneurship educational workshops. The program is open to aspiring entrepreneurs from across the university. The goal of the Entrepreneurship Fellows program is to prepare students to strengthen and refine their entrepreneurial aspirations, develop skills vital to their entrepreneurial success, expand their network, and more broadly position the fellows for a successful career. The fellowship includes guest presentations, experiential learning opportunities, and workshops focused on developing skills and techniques of successful entrepreneurs.

Benefits of the Fellowship
