

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT MAJOR

Business Electives: Any course 300 and above from the college of business that is Not in your core (INB, BLA, MGT, MKT, ECO, FIN, ACC 300\400 level courses).

In addition, the following can be used as Business Electives for the Management Major:

MGT483 and 486: Internships
GEO325: Business Geographic
GEO425: GIS Business Applications
GEO334: Sustainable living
EFR401: French Business Culture
ECH380: Chinese Business Culture
SOC340: Sociology of Work (special topic class, and it has to be Sociology of “Work”)
SOC343: Sociology of Organizations
PSY265: I/O Psychology
PSY327: Applied Behavior Analysis
PSC318: International Political Economy from INTL B. Minor
PSC372: Organization and Management (Public and Nonprofit)
ENG371: Technical Writing
PHI 373: Business Ethics
PSY445: Organizational Developments

If you are currently taking a 300\400 level course that you think qualifies as a Business Elective, please contact either Dr. Xiaowei (Linda) Zhu or Dr. Li Lu.

Business Minors:

Accounting Minor
Finance Minor
Economics Minor
Business Law Minor
International Business Minor
White Collar Crime Minor
Business Geographic Information Systems Minor

Double Major:

Business majors receive a B.S. Degree. A student may declare two majors within the B.S. Degree and must meet all of the requirements for both majors. A popular dual business major is Management and Marketing. A double major has a minimum requirement of 120 credits.

Dual Degrees:

A business student can also pursue dual degrees. In this situation, the student would be pursuing a business major (B.S. Degree) and a major in a different degree such as English which is a B.A. Degree. To graduate with dual degrees, the student must complete a minimum of 150 credits. The Undergraduate Catalog has a list of all degrees and their corresponding majors.

Popular Dual Majors and Minors

- 1) Management Major and International Business Minor
- 2) Management Major and Business Geographic Information Systems Minor
- 3) Dual Management and Marketing major