

Curricular Requirements

Date Proposed:

Date Approved by CAPC: December 14, 1995

Date Approved by Provost:

Policy

An academic department is the sole judge of whether its students have met the curricular requirements of that department's degree programs. No department, however, may compel a student to complete requirements that were not in effect when that student became a major or minor in that department.