

Instructor Results of Nursing Clinical Questionnaire

Name:

Term: Spring 2024

Course:

Raters	Responded	Invited
Students

Question	Response Count	Mean	Standard Deviation
Demonstrates a thorough knowledge of subject matter.
Correlates clinical experiences with classroom theory.
Explains clearly the expectations for the clinical expectation.
Provides an environment which allows students to ask questions and seek assistance.
Organizes clinical experiences to meet the needs of students.
Supervises and assists with new experiences to meet the needs of students.
Is available to students during clinical time.
Encourages independent thinking and learning; utilizes clinical conference time effectively.
Provides feedback to students regarding their strengths and weaknesses.
Permits freedom of discussion and exploration of feelings

Maximum possible student rating score for any question is 5.

Department Results

Question	Norm Response across NCQ (NCL)
	Response Count	Mean	Standard Deviation
Demonstrates a thorough knowledge of subject matter.
Correlates clinical experiences with classroom theory.
Explains clearly the expectations for the clinical expectation.
Provides an environment which allows students to ask questions and seek assistance.
Organizes clinical experiences to meet the needs of students.
Supervises and assists with new experiences to meet the needs of students.
Is available to students during clinical time.
Encourages independent thinking and learning; utilizes clinical conference time effectively.
Provides feedback to students regarding their strengths and weaknesses.
Permits freedom of discussion and exploration of feelings

The department mean and standard deviation (SD) are computed by combining all NSG/NSL 311, 312, 385, 411, and 412 sections.