

CISE is a WCU experience that invites you to take your learning off campus using an evidence-based teacher preparation model.

Spend a semester taking required EGP courses while learning alongside educators, families, community members, and young people.

Join a committed cohort of peers and WCU faculty who value the wisdom of communities in shaping and informing urban teaching with a social justice lens.

THE COMMUNITY immersive semester for EDUCATORS

FALL 2021

LAUNCH YOUR LEARNING

from the WCU campus to a Philadelphia community

YOU ARE ELIGIBLE IF YOU ARE:

- 1 Willing to be available during the Fall 2021 semester on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, 8:00AM to 5:00PM* (*some evening & weekend time also required)
- 2 Eager to work with amazing kids, and their teachers, parents, and community leaders while gaining important skills & knowledge and building friendships and professional relationships
- 3 Willing to travel from your campus or home location to Add B. Anderson School and the Cobbs Creek community in Philadelphia (travel stipends may be available)
- 4 An EGP or EGP/EDA major
- 5 Able to take all of the following courses:
EDR 304
EDR 307
EDF 255
EGP 326
EGP 220

Interested? Please contact Dr. Katie Solic at ksolic@wcupa.edu