

SAT

Your SAT scores are released on collegeboard.com approximately three weeks after you take the exam. Although most scores are available on the first score release day, a small percentage might not be. If you fall in this small percentage, instead of seeing your scores, you will see a message instructing you to check back at a later date. You will need to check back — usually about a week later — for your scores and to see your full score report. Send score reports at any time from your "My SAT" account. The time frames for score delivery vary based upon each institution's method of receiving scores. Please remember that an additional week may be needed for the score recipients to process your scores once they receive them. Request your score reports to be sent using Rush service. Once your request is received, rush reports are typically sent to institutions within 2 business days (not counting holidays and weekends). Before ordering rush reports, check with the designated institutions — they may not review your score(s) until their next scheduled processing date. If you are applying early decision or early action, check to see if the college or university accepts October and November scores to meet deadlines. Rush reporting is only available for scores that have already been released.

It takes the College Board about 5 weeks to mail an SAT score to a college if regular delivery is requested.

Service	More Information	Fee

Service	More Information	Fee
Multiple-choice score verification	Hand score verification is the most rigorous level of score verification. As such, it overrides other forms of score verification. If you order hand score verification, you will no longer see the full My SAT Online Score Report and you will not have access to the Student Answer Service or Question-and-Answer Service for your hand scored answer sheet. When hand scoring of a multiple-choice score is requested, your entire answer sheet will be manually reviewed - you cannot request verification of scores for a single section on the SAT or just one of several SAT Subject Tests taken on the same date.	$55 Fee reduction available
Essay score verification	This verification determines whether there was an error made in the scanning or processing of the essay scores assigned by essay readers. If an error is found, your adjusted score is automatically reported and your fee is refunded.	$55 Fee reduction

If the student has used College Board before, and has selected our University as a recipient of their scores they will not need to pay an additional fee, even if West Chester no longer has them on file. However, if the students did not originally select West Chester as one of the four schools to send the scores to, there is a fee of $11.25. This is a great bit of information for our Counseling Students. The students cannot alter the scores housed by College Board and the scores will be sent like an official score report (ETS, PEARSON).

If the student calls before ordering the score report, the student can specify which office they would like the scores sent to. If you need to speak with College Board, the number is 866-756-7346.

Undergraduate students will be required to provide a score report as part of their application to formal admission to teacher education (FATE). Post Baccalaureate students, with the exception of Counselor Education, are exempt from basic skills testing.
