

“Hiding in Plain Sight: Youth Mental Illness” is a Ken Burns documentary that explores America’s mental health crisis through the eyes of more than twenty young people and the providers, advocates family, and friends who support them.

This event, presented by the Chester County Suicide Prevention Task Force, and co-sponsored by the Chester County Intermediate Unit, will include a 30 minute “screener” and a moderated panel discussion including those with lived experience, behavioral health professionals, and the perspective of our youth.

The Chester County Intermediate Unit will provide a light dinner before the event.
