

Become a Social Work Field Instructor

Could your Agency benefit from hosting a West Chester University BSW or MSW student for their field placement? If so, please contact us to support energetic students who are eager to learn, gain more experience, and further their development in social work policy and practice.

Students are placed in Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New Jersey and can utilize their skills to assist in the following areas:

- Case Management
- Crisis Intervention
- Counseling
- Prevention/Education
- Group Work
- BSW Juniors: complete 244 hours during their spring semester (16 hours per week)
- BSW Senior and MSW Generalist students: complete 224 hours per semester (fall and spring) and must be supervised by someone with a BSW or MSW degree
- MSW Specialization students: complete 252 hours per semester (fall and spring) and must be supervised by someone with an MSW degree and two years experience (18 hours per week)

Field Instructors are invited to attend programmed events throughout the year with the opportunity to earn free CEU's . All events provide a great space to network with members of the WCU team and other Social Work professionals!
