·	Practicum	Field Instructor
1.		of West Chester University's Underg	_

- 1. Share in the mission of West Chester University's Undergraduate Social Work Program (i.e. to prepare students with a basic competence for an entry level professional generalist social work practice by helping students become reflective, self-evaluating, knowledgeable, developing social workers).
- 2. Provide direct service responsibility by the second week of placement. Assignments should be made with educational value as the primary consideration.
- 3. Help the student engage in learning by helping him/her to express and specify his/her own learning needs and encourage the student to evaluate his/her own work continuously.
- 4. Hold the student to accepted standards of professional behavior and notify the program immediately of any failure of the student to live up to the terms of this agreement.
- 5. We agree to the following specific responsibilities:
  - a. Prepare for student's arrival by designating workspace and equipment, preparing case assignments, and orientation to the agency and the community.
  - b. Provide a minimum of one and a half hours of uninterrupted supervision at a regularly scheduled, mutually agreed upon time.
  - c. Hold students to submit an agenda for supervision in advance of the supervision time.
  - d. Vary assignments to include clients from different cultural, social and religious backgrounds and call for different helping roles, i.e. counseling, mediation, advocacy, and networking. Where possible, have assignments include work with individuals, groups, families, and communities.
  - e. Provide on-going feedback to the student on his/her progress in specific areas of practice.
  - f. Complete a detailed written evaluation at the middle and end of each semester (See the Undergraduate Social Work Program's Field Manual).
  - g. Include students in staff meetings, and other professional meetings whenever possible.
    - h. Attend the orientation and field instructor's meetings at the University.
  - i. Participate in the on-going evaluation of the content and design of the Undergraduate Social Work Program.
