

TEACH Grant Eligible Programs of Study

West Chester University of Pennsylvania has designated the following programs of study as eligible programs:

Undergraduate Programs (CIP CODES)

- B.S. Special Education (13.1)
- B.S. Special Education/Early Grades Preparation (13.1)
- B.S. Special Education/Middle Grades Preparation (13.1)
- B.S. Special Education/Secondary Education (13.1)
- B.S. Ed in the following specializations:
 - Biology (13.1322)
 - Chemistry (13.1323)
 - Earth and Space Science Geology: Earth and Space (13.1337)
 - Mathematics (13.1311)
 - Physics. (13.1329)
- B.S. Ed in Middle Grades Preparation in the following concentrations:
 - Science (13.1316)
 - Math (13.1311)
 - Reading/Language Arts (13.1315)
- B.A. with and elective certification in the following foreign languages:
 - French (13.1325)
 - German (13.1326)
 - Latin (13.1333)
 - Russian (13.1306)
 - Spanish (13.133)

Graduate Programs (CIP CODES)

- M.Ed Special Education (13.1)
- M.A. Teaching English as a Second Language (13.1401)
- M.Ed Reading (13.1315)
- M. Ed Secondary Education – in conjunction with Teacher Certification that prepares students to teach in one of the following high need fields
 - Foreign Language (13.1306)
 - Mathematics (13.1311)
 - Reading Specialist (13.1315)
 - Science (13.1316)
 - Special Education (13.1)

These programs are subject to change depending on the annual Teacher Shortage Area Nationwide Listing published by the U.S. Department of Education. Furthermore, as defined by regulation, students who are pursuing a teaching certification as a post-baccalaureate at West Chester University of Pennsylvania are not eligible for the TEACH Grant (686.2(d) section 420L(2) of the HEOA). West Chester University of Pennsylvania offers an undergraduate teacher preparation program, therefore, cannot consider students who are matriculated as post-baccalaureate teacher certification.