

The following program costs are projected for the 2018-2019 academic year for full-time interns. Costs are estimated based on present tuition. Tuition is based per credit hour and technology fees.

Per Credit	Non-DI Courses	In-State DI Course	Out-of-State DI Course
Tuition	$500	$625	$750
Fees (ed services & distance access)	$154.05	$172.80	$191.55
Total	$654.05	$797.80	$941.55

Additional expenses may include: mandatory accident coverage, travel, lab coats, textbook and supplies, health insurance (purchased through the college), criminal background check, State Annual Meeting and AND membership. Estimates for these potential costs are listed below.

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Student Membership	$50
Books and Supplies (estimate)	$300
Lab Coat/Name Tag (estimate)	$50
Liability Insurance (estimate)	$25
Background Check/fingerprinting (some facilities require) estimate	$100 to 125
Health Insurance*	Required variable cost.
Three-day in person Orientation (Required)	Budget for: Transportation, housing (2 to 3 nights and food) Travel will be the student responsibility and that cost will vary based on mode and distance of travel. Estimated food and lodging: 2-3 nights-$300- 450 (146.06/night includes breakfast) Potential food: $25.00- 50.00 per day (1-2 meals/day.