Building Classes in PeopleSoft Workshop

Target Audience: Academic Department Faculty and Staff

Description: This course building work shop will teach academic department class builders, how to build courses, provide tips for building and update them on any changes that may have taken place with PeopleSoft.

Course Includes: Course building materials provided by the Registrar's Office

Prerequisite: If you do not have access to build courses for your academic department, this class serves as a prerequisite to receive access.