

Intro to GIS II

Target Audience:

Faculty interested in gain understanding of spatially projected data and students

Description:

Experience how your data can be projected in space using ArcGIS software. You will gain a basic understanding of GIS tools and map design.

Prerequisite:

Completion of Intro to GIS I or previous knowledge of ArcGIS

Course Includes:

- Review of Intro to GIS I
- Working with tables
 - Selecting Attributes
 - Creating Fields
- Selecting Areas
 - Select by Location
 - Spatial Overlay
- Layout View
 - Choosing Layouts
 - Centering the Area
 - Check typing mistakes or grammatical errors
 - Insert elements: Legend, North Arrow, Title, Scale Bar, Text
 - Items design
 - Exporting Maps