

Fall 2013 University Forum RFP for Spring and/or Summer 2014

Proposal Number	Name of Proposal	Name of Submitters	Focus/NOTES:
2	“Unconditional Brotherly Love?” Combating Homophobia within Fraternal Organizations	Cara Jenkins and Aneesah Smith	Speaker – Terrence Dean. Men of color in Greek Orgs. FOCUS: Race and LGBTQ
	Brief description: The submitters will bring in a speaker, Terrence Dean, to discuss the experiences of being an out, Greek, gay man of color. The project also includes focus groups before and after the speaking event.
3	WCU Athlete Ally	Dr. Rachel Daltry, Kellianne Milliner, and Aneesah Smith	Speaker Kye Allums, LGBTQ 101 FOCUS: LGBTQ and Athletes
	Brief description: The submitters will bring in a speaker, Kye Allums, and athletes will be able to go through LGBTQ 101 and Ally Training.
4	Understanding Students with Asperger’s and Guidelines for Supporting Success in College	Dr. Rachel Daltry, and Dr. Julie Perone	Speaker: Jane Thierfeld Brown Training for staff and faculty FOCUS: People with Disabilities
	Brief description: The submitters will bring in speaker, Jane Thierfeld Brown and offer training for faculty and staff on the experiences of students with Asperger’s.
6	Out in the Workplace: from Campus to Career	Rebecca Ross and Aneesah Smith	Networking lunch, panel, resume review – Career development FOCUS: LGBTQ
	Brief description: The submitters will create events that provide resume review, connections with alumni and networking to explore what it means to be LGBTQ when searching for employment.
7	Green Dot Bystander Intervention Campaign	Alicia Hahn-Murphy	Sexual Assault Bystander Prevention training for staff and faculty FOCUS: Sexual Assault
	Brief description: The submitter will work with a team that will travel to participate in GreenDot Training. That team will then present trainings and “train the trainer” on bystander intervention.
8	The Ties that Bind	Dr. Joanne Conlon and Edward W. Franklin III	Development program for Brother 2 Brother FOCUS: Race
	Brief description: The submitters will collect ties and start a tradition for men at WCU. The groups will also be reaching out to men at local high schools. The ending event will provide a mentorship activity bringing together, faculty, staff and students.

Fall 2013 University Forum RFP for Spring and/or Summer 2014

9	Meetings with Frederick Douglass: Rewriting the Word and the World	Dr. Dena Beeghly and Dr. Gerardina Martin		Speaker for ADP and Act 101 students FOCUS: Race (General diversity and oppression)
	Brief description: The submitters are bringing in a speaker for ADP and Act 101 students to allow them a personal exploration of the life, impact, and perspective of Frederick Douglass.			