

WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH A SOCIOLOGY DEGREE?

Explore the possibilities in this one-hour live webinar!

3-4 p.m. Monday, Feb. 27 | Bus. & Public Mgmt. Ctr., room 116

The new Business & Public Management Center is located at the corner of Sharpless and Church streets.

“Building Your Career with a Bachelor’s Degree in Sociology”

In this webinar, two young professionals who majored in sociology will discuss how the sociology degree shaped their career paths and the ways in which they apply sociological principles in their positions on a daily basis. Their comments and advice to sociology students will be supplemented by Dr. Teresa Ciabattari, Associate Professor of Sociology at Pacific Lutheran University, who will present data about the kinds of skills that employers are looking for and how sociology majors are using those skills in the workplace.

Presenter – Kiara Nicholson is a prevention educator at Hays-Caldwell Women’s Center in San Marcos, Texas. She works to end interpersonal violence by engaging youth and adults in conversations related to gender equity, advocacy, and healthy relationships. Kiara obtained a B.A. degree in applied sociology from Texas State University and has been with HCWC since 2013.

Presenter – Bao-Tram Do started as a young grant-maker serving on a youth grant-making board in high school. Bao-Tram received her B.A. in sociology from Whitman College and is a Gates Millennium Scholar. She is on the board of directors for Summer Search Seattle and APACEvotes. She has been working at Seattle Foundation since 2013.
