

Tyler Rutherford Job Talk

SOCIOLOGY CLUB

On October 14th Tyler, a 2018 West Chester University Graduate came to talk about what he is doing with his career. He is currently working in Marketing and gave advice and tips for West Chester University Undergraduates attending the talk.

Tyler described his duo-major in Sociology and Political Science as allowing him to stand out from the sea of Marketing and Business majors.

Tyler described strengths in studying Sociology such as learning critical thinking skills and social skills to use in building connections and repertoire with employers.

Tyler gave advice for Undergraduates to utilize their time effectively in college by focusing on learning useful skills and talking to Professors.
