P PURSUE YOUR PASSION

Ask yourself...

DO I HAVE THE SKILLS
NECESSARY TO WORK
IN THIS FIELD?

WHAT MAKES ME
HAPPY
AND SELF-FULFILLED?

DO I HAVE THE PERSEVERANCE
TO OBTAIN THE SKILLS
THAT I NEED?

In your four years of college, you are surrounded by thousands of classmates and tendencies are to fall in line with everyone else. Many of your classmates aren't pursuing their passion. They may simply be waiting to see what happens after getting their degree. Instead of doing "what everyone else does," get involved, pursue your interests. The more you experience (friends, teachers, classes, clubs, books, employment, travel), the greater the likelihood you will find an interest which could turn into a passion. Your "free" time is invaluable; Spend it cultivating your interests.

"IF YOU DO WHAT
EVERYONE
ELSE DOES,
YOU ARE GOING TO GET WHAT EVERYONE ELSE GETS."

Nebraska Baseball Coach
