

Spatial Intelligence and Learning Center – REU Program
 Julie Booth, Liz Gunderson, Nora Newcombe, Kathy Hirsh-Pasek, Thomas F. Shipley

Instructions

Email the following items to Justin Long (Justin.long@temple.edu) as attachments:

1. One copy of this completed document
 2. Resume / CV
 3. Cover letter describing the following:
 - a. Why you are applying to this program
 - b. Your overall goals
 - c. Areas of interest in psychology
 - d. Previous research experience (if applicable)
 - e. Post-graduation plans
-

Personal Information

Name:
 Email:

Academic Information

College/University Attended:
 Expected date of graduation:
 Major:
 GPA:

Availability

Undergraduate interns are asked to be work at least 40 hours per week in the lab. Would this be something you could commit to?

	Preference	Availability
Monday
Tuesday

Wednesday
Thursday
Friday

Please rank your summer research preference 1 (first choice) to 5 (last choice) based on your interests:

Research in Spatial Cognition _____

Temple Infant & Child Lab _____

Cognition & Learning Lab _____

Sketching and Self-Explanation for Diagram Comprehension in Math and Science _____

Coordinating Multiple Representations: A Comparison of Eye Gaze Patterns of High School and Undergraduate Students _____

Comments

Anything else we should know about you?